DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claim 30 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Cardarelli (US 6,156,088).

Cardarelli shows a therapeutic device including a piece of furniture having a plurality of therapeutic devices attached including a vaporizer for producing a therapeutic vapor, the vaporizer having a filter and a fan for directing air through the filter to dispense aromatic essence such as odor refreshing essence wherein the therapeutic devices are camouflaged from view.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 11, 14, 20, 21, 25, 27, 29 and 30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Vick (US 6,749,479) in view of Mandish (US 6,315,959) or Porter (US 5,429,271).

Art Unit: 3742

Vick shows a decorative therapeutic apparatus including a decorative soft sculpture having an animal figure shape attachable to a person, the apparatus having a vaporizer for producing therapeutic vapors, but Vick does not show heating means and a fan.

Mandish shows a decorative therapeutic apparatus including a vaporizer with a heating means and a fan for blowing the heated vaporized liquid. Porter also shows that it is well known in the art to provide a decorative or camouflaged vaporizer having a heater to facilitate a more efficient vaporization. In view of Mandish or Porter, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to adapt Vick with a heating means and a fan to further facilitate a more rapid vaporization of the scented or vaporizable material.

With respect to the recited therapeutic devices including massaging devices, permanent magnets, pressure points, or heating pads, it is well known that such device are used as various therapeutic devices, and it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to adapt Vick with such devices to further enhance the therapeutic effects. Furthermore, as admitted by the applicant's traverse filed on 12/26/06 to the requirement of the election of species, the recited elements, along with various applications thereof, are also deemed as obvious various which are not independent and distinct from one another.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 3742

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
